

Affiliation Agreement

Massachusetts Association for Occupational Therapy, Inc. (MAOT), is a state affiliate with the American Occupational Therapy Association, Inc (AOTA), the principle national professional association.

This affiliation allows each organization to collaborate yet maintain autonomy while sharing the common goals of advancing the profession of occupational therapy, improve public awareness, access, and contributions of occupational therapy.